Hi. I'm Veronica!

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER & COACH

Veronica Holland is a dynamic Speaker, Author, and Faith-based mentor on a mission to help women heal from life's hardest seasons, reset their faith, and walk boldly in their God-given purpose.

A breast cancer survivor, corporate professional, and purpose-driven entrepreneur, Veronica's message blends spiritual restoration and practical empowerment—reminding women that overcoming adversity is not the end of their story, but the beginning of their transformation.

As the founder of H.E.R. (Healed, Empowered, Reset) Ministry, Veronica creates sacred spaces where women can be Healed, Empowered, and Reset—spiritually, emotionally, and purposefully. Through her powerful speaking, Survivor to CEO memoir, and faith-rooted coaching, she helps women release what broke them, rediscover who they are in Christ, and realign with their divine assignment. Her signature message, "Healed. Empowered. Reset" is rooted in her experience, her passion and her mission.

.Known for her warmth, transparency, and storytelling, Veronica connects faith and resilience in a way that reignites hope and purpose for women overcoming challenges or starting a new chapter in their life.

When she's not speaking or teaching, Veronica is working on her book series designed to help women turn their pain into purpose and their purpose into platforms that create lasting impact.
